LETTER FROM PRESIDENT & BOARD CHAIR

Dear Friends of the Food Bank,

This year offered us the true gift of really examining where we have been and where we are going. After 40 years of serving our neighbors and the community we had the opportunity, as we celebrated this incredible milestone, to truly imagine ending hunger in our region. The prospect is a complex one that also demands transformational thinking with an openness to new ideas and innovative solutions.

At the same time, we saw historic need in our communities. We ended the year with service statistics that were a staggering 30% higher than just two years ago and 70% higher than before the pandemic.

The issue of food insecurity is multifaceted, and strategic partnerships take center stage as we address root causes of hunger, while facing the immediate need of today. Our goal of nutrition security drives us as we develop our programs, food sourcing and distribution.

Your partnership helps fuel and inspire us to innovate and better serve our region. We look forward to this next chapter as we continue to strive toward our vision -

Healthy Food. Every Person. Every Day.

Sincerely,

Nicole Lamboley

Unprecedented Need Results in Record-Breaking Year of Food Distribution

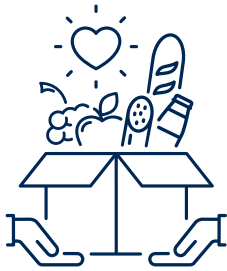

The Food Bank tracked a growing increase in families and individuals turning to our organization and our network of 155 partner agencies for food assistance during FY2024. FBNN currently serves an average of 155,000 people per month—a 70% increase compared to just before the pandemic hit. Continued high housing costs along with the persistent elevated grocery prices and other expenses have made it challenging for families to make ends meet. FBNN distributed a record 25.2 million pounds of food in FY2024, and with meals provided via Kids Cafe and through SNAP Outreach benefits, a total of 21.7 million meals were provided to our neighbors experiencing food insecurity.

Strategies to Tackle Nutrition Security

The USDA defines nutrition security as consistent and equitable access to healthy, safe, and affordable food essential for optimal health. At the Food Bank of Northern Nevada, we understand that access to the right foods is crucial for community well-being. That's why we focus on sourcing fresh produce, lean proteins, and other nutritious options. Last year, 32% of the food we distributed was fresh produce—a significant shift from the early days of mostly non-perishable items. Over 6 million pounds of fresh produce reached our partner agencies, with an additional 2 million pounds distributed through programs like Mobile Harvest, Produce on Wheels, and the Senior Nutrition and Wellness program.

To promote healthier choices, our Supporting Wellness at Pantries (SWAP) initiative empowers 32 partner pantries to prioritize nutrition education and access. Additionally, the Prescription Pantry program collaborates with healthcare providers to connect patients with health conditions to nutritious foods at 14 participating pantries. Through these efforts, we aim to make nutritious, fresh food accessible to all, improving the health and lives of our community members.
